"NOT A DRUM WAS HEARD."

Hon. Mr. Patterson's Silent Entry —Significant Absence of Political Friends.

Montreal's Scandal—Fifteen More Firebugs Wanted—Heavy Business Failures.

Winnipeg, Sept. 10.—Neither cheer nor murmur marked the entry of Hon. J. C. Patterson to the city yesterday, as Lieutenant-Governor of this province. A feeble effort of a few to get up a hostile demonstration failed utterly. There were several hundred representative citizens at the depot to meet him, among them being ex-Lieutenant-Governor Schultz, the members of the provincial government and legislature, the mayor and aldermen, as well as many leading business men. There was a noticeable absence of local Conservative leaders, the great majority of those who greeted the new Governor being political opponents.

Willis Green, porter on a Great Northern Pullman car, was arrested yesterday for smuggling cigars, tobacco and cigarettes into this country from St. Paul, and disposing of them to local retailers.

Montreal, Sept. 10.—In addition to those now under arrest, warrants have been issued for the arrest of fifteen other business men of this city and surrounding towns, as being implicated in the gigantic insurance swindle already reported. The insurance companies have been collecting evidence for a long time, and claim to have straight cases against every one of these men.

E. Frank Moseley & Co., leather merchants and tanners, of Montreal and St. Hyacinthe, Que., one of the largest and oldest firms in Canada, are in financial difficulties, and a demand for their assignment has been made. The liabilities are said to be in the vicinity of $400,000, while it is understood that the assets will make but a poor showing.

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 10.—The loss by the incendiary fire at Liverpool is $120,000, with insurance of $1000. An investigation was held with closed doors, which it is expected will result in the arrest of the suspected incendiaries.

SMITH AND SCARTH

Ottawa, Sept. 10.—The cabinet has under consideration the question of the appointment of Messrs. Smith and Scarth, of Winnipeg, but the matter will not likely be settled definitely until the premier's return to Ottawa. The hitch has arisen in connection with the salary Smith is to receive as deputy minister.

The Treasury board met to-day to arrange for the positions of Scarth and Ross. Caron and Tupper were present. It is understood everything has been fixed, but the council will have yet to pass upon the matter. Caron leaves to-morrow for Quebec to see his sister away to Jamaica and will not return this week, so it is not likely that there will be a meeting of the council until Ecwell reaches here about the beginning of next week.

The government organs stated six months ago that Justice Fournier had resigned. Mr. Fournier's six months' leave of absence have expired and he is still a member of the Supreme court.

Ottawa, Sept. 9.—The excursion steamer Majestic, drawing 14 feet and with a party of 750 excursionists on board, was the first to pass through the Sault Ste. Marie lock. Superintendent Boyd wired Mr. Schreiber, deputy minister, to-day that the gates and valves, which are operated entirely by electricity, worked splendidly. Electricity as motive power in this connection is an entirely new thing, Canada being the first country to adopt it. A gratifying message was received at the department to-day from Mr. Wheeler, engineer-in-chief of the canal now being built on the Michigan side of the river. It reads as follows: "Accept congratulations upon the successful opening of your magnificent lock."

Mr. Burgess, deputy minister of the interior, left for New Mexico to-day to attend the irrigation conference.

Mr. Kilvert returned to this city to-day to resume the duties of acting commissioner of customs for a few days, he and Mr. McMichael taking turns week about. Mr. McMichael taking turns week about.

Dairy Commissioner Robertson emphatically denies the statement of the London Agriculturist that filled or imitation cheese made in Canada is now being sold in London. He says that under the dairy products act, 1893, the manufacture of such cheese in Canada is rendered impossible.

Prof. Robertson leaves for Manitoba and the coast to-morrow.

Premier Bowell arrived at Regina to-night after one of the most extended trips ever undertaken by the first minister of Canada in the far Northwest.

The Mounted Police at Calgary have arrested a young fellow named A. Bowen, who was wanted in Hull on a charge of raising Dominion notes. Bowen, when indicted, was allowed out on bail, but did not put in an appearance when court met.

Insurance agents in this vicinity are on the jump just now. This latest prosecution is in Hull against the secretary of the local Sons of England lodge for doing business without a license.

A private message from Winnipeg says that Hon. J. C. Patterson received a cordial greeting to-day on his arrival to assume the duties of lieutenant-governor. He was met at the station by the late governor, Sir John Schultz, members of the local government and the city corporation. The lieutenant-governor declined the escort of dragoons tendered to him.

The department of customs to-day issued the first batch of rulings of the new board, which cover about 50 articles.

BEATRICE'S GUNS AT HOME.

Crew Were to Forfeit Pay if They Broke the Law.

Vancouver, Sept. 10.—Charles Doering, owner of the Beatrice, left for Victoria this afternoon. He says that all the guns belonging to the Beatrice are stored here, and that there is not one on board. The captain and crew signed an agreement that if they made any breach of the law they would forfeit all pay.

Fred Goodmurphy was up to-day for preliminary trial on the charge of abducting Fannie Scott, a girl alleged to be under 16. Decision was reserved.

L. Doucet was married here to-day to Miss Alexander, daughter of J. M. L. Alexander, of Fort Simpson. They left for Victoria on their wedding trip.

VALKYRIE VICTORIOUS.

The British Boat Wins the Second of the Series by 40 Seconds.

A Protest is Entered That She Fouled the Defender at the Start.

Highlands, off Navesink, Sept. 10.—Real Valkyrie weather, a smooth sea and light air, prevailed off the Hook this morning. A few stray yachts, fishermen and small coasting craft were to be seen at anchor inside Sandy Hook, but the contestants for the America's cup were absent from their usual moorings, having passed the night almost within a biscuit toss of each other, off the Atlantic Club's anchorage at Bay Ridge. Britishers are not much discouraged by the defeat which their yacht met with on Saturday last. They have shifted some of the ballast from aft at the suggestion of Mr. George L. Watson, the Valkyrie designer, have had her remeasured and have given her a good trial spin since the last heat of the battle for the cup; therefore, they confidently expect to show up in better form to-day.

The only objectionable features of the last race were the crowding of the excursion steamers and the fact that a good view of the race could not be obtained owing to the fog and haze. To remedy the first complaint as far as possible, Rear-Admiral James C. Bergen, New York Yacht club, who is in command of the volunteer patrol fleet, made a second special request to captains of steamers which accompany the racers to avoid all interference with the yachts, and threatened if his injunctions were not attended to to-day, the people of Sandy Hook would never have the pleasure of seeing another international yacht race, for the next challenger would positively stipulate that the contest shall take place off some part of the coast where interference will be impossible.

Mr. David Henderson, of the Anchor line, represented Lord Dunraven on board the Defender, and Mr. Joseph P. Rusk, owner of the sloop yacht Mischief when she defended the America's cup against the Canadian sloop Atlanta, the challenger in 1870, represented the America's cup committee.

The preparatory gun was fired at 10:50, and the jockeying at once commenced. The Defender stood off shore on the starboard tack at once and the Valkyrie ran down across her stern. The Defender immediately came about again and stood back toward the mark and a moment later the Valkyrie luffed sharp into the wind and then swung around after her. The boats then ran off close together and wore around to the mark, with the Defender slightly in the lead, but the Valkyrie appeared to have the windward and held on to it hard. Both boats were heading for the line, and they set their jib topsails. Valkyrie was too quick, however, and had to turn off a little, as both boats almost touched each other.

The Valkyrie crossed the line at 11:00:43; Defender, 11:01:20. The Defender allowed the Valkyrie to cross ahead of her wilfully, for she kept off several seconds after her rival had crossed. After crossing, both boats came about and stood in shore. The Valkyrie had quite a lead and the wind gave each boat just a comfortable heel. The Defender's topmast was apparently carried away and she raised a protest flag. Both boats held on the course, however, as Defender's little mishap was merely the sail catching, which was soon remedied.

The Valkyrie was about half a mile to windward of the Defender, but the Yankee was clearly outpointing her and going through the water fully as fast. As far as heeling was concerned there was nothing to choose between them; they both held a comfortable little breeze. At 11:09 the Defender raised a protest flag, claiming the Valkyrie crowded her at the line, causing her to carry away her topmast shrouds. Both boats were then sailing very fast, the Defender showing marvellous ability to beat to windward.

In the beat out to the lightship the two boats were on the starboard tack. The Valkyrie was not pointing as high as her competitor, but she seemed to be footing faster. Shortly after ten o'clock the wind died out considerably, giving rise to doubts as to whether the race could be sailed in the time allowance, if at all. At half past ten, however, the Valkyrie caught the breeze and showed up well, her sails fitting admirably.

Quarantine, Staten Island, Sept. 10.—The race on Saturday was a beat of 15 miles to windward and a broad reach of 15 miles on the run home. To-day's race was around a triangle, ten miles to a leg, thirty miles in all, starting from Sandy Hook lightship, with the first leg a beat as near to windward as possible. The Valkyrie could be seen at 8.42 through the Swash channel with her mainsail up and in tow. The Defender at the same time was passing the end of the Hook. There was no change in the weather and it was fully as thick off shore as it had been an hour before. Shortly before 9 o'clock the Defender passed outside the Hook with mainsail and jib set and in tow of a tug. A fleet of tugs commenced creeping down from New York and a dozen or more run through the Swash channel at 9 o'clock, following the racers out to the lightship. The Lucy

HOSPITAL DIRECTORS.

Report From the Committee on Maternity Education for the Nurses.

Resident Medical Officer's Report as to the Number of Patients Treated.

There were present at last evening's meeting of the Board of Directors of the Jubilee Hospital, President Davies, in the chair, and Messrs. Chudley, J. S. Yates, Brown, Wilson, Hayward, Braverman, Dwyer, Byrnes, Shotbolt and H. D. Helmcken.

The report of a meeting of the medical staff was received and laid on the table. The following resolution was passed at that meeting:

That the staff in answer to the question submitted to them by the Board of Directors beg leave to observe that it is impossible for them to intelligently answer the question without knowing the size of the proposed operating suite. Should the space available to the east of the present male surgical ward be sufficiently large for the proposed building, such propositnon is recommended by the staff."

Dr. Richardson, resident medical officer reported among other things, that the average daily cost per patient during August, was $1.30, this being higher than usual on account of the small attendance of patients. The number of patients in the hospital on august 12 was 40; number admitted during August 36; discharged 37; deceased 2; in the hospital 1st September 37.

The matron reported that Miss Ethel Ferris having passed the necessary examination, she was now entitled to a nurse's certificate. She complained that the washing was not satisfactory, numerous pieces of clothing, etc., being destroyed.

It was moved by Mr. Yates, seconded by Mr. Shotbolt, that the present contract be rescinded. This motion was lost.

A committee appointed for the purpose, submitted rules for the guidance of the medical board. The most important clause was to the effect that no changes be made to the buildings, or new ones erected without the plans having previously been submitted to the board. The board is to consist of the members of the visiting and consulting staff.

The clause referring to changes in the building was altered to read that the medical board should consider changes to the buildings referred to them by the Directors.

The report after being amended was adopted.

Messrs. Helmcken, Yates and Byrnes were appointed a committee to revise the by-laws.

The committee appointed to elaborate a scheme to educate nurses in maternity cases, presented their report. The report was laid on the table until Friday evening. The report follows:

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 9, 1895.

The Board of Directors of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Gentlemen: Your committee upon whom it has devolved to elaborate a scheme for the extension of the education of the nurses to maternity cases have found the project surrounded with many difficulties and not a few objections.

They have interviewed both the present medical officer and the matron at the hospital with reference to letting the nurses have their maternity, clinical training, or at least a part of it, at the maternity home.

The first objection to that was that the training not being under the supervision of the doctor and matron they could not give a certificate as to their qualifications. This difficulty may be got over by letting the nurse get a certificate from the medical man who attends the case at the home.

The next objection, and a serious one, was that of depriving the Jubilee Hospital of the services of a nurse during the last three months of her service, just when she is of the most use and benefit to the institution which has trained her.

Then again, it was urged forcibly, and with good reason, that it was never safe to be without our full complement of nine nurses; and if one nurse was taken away (say three months before the expiration of her term) to attend a case at the maternity home, a probationer must be taken on at once to take her place. Then the senior nurse, having agreed her term at the maternity home, was entitled to return to the Jubilee Hospital for the unexpired balance of her term—and there is no room in the hospital in case of such an emergency.

Your committee, with the view of providing more accommodation, inspected the space over the corridors and pay wards, and came to the conclusion that the space there could be converted into three or four good rooms at not much expense. The project was laid before Dr. Davie for his opinion, and he disapproved of the same, as it would do away at once with the original pavilion plan of the hospital.

Your committee then inspected the space under the medical pay wards on the men's side of the hospital, and ascertained that two rooms might be made there which could accommodate the male nurse and Dadgeon, and leave the room at present occupied by them free to be occupied by any nurse returning to the hospital as above mentioned.

Until further accommodation for the nursing staff is provided your committee would not recommend that a nurse should be permitted to leave the hospital for the purpose of attending at the maternity home except within the last month of her term and until there was no probability of her having to return to the hospital.

Your committee would recommend that, subject to the above conditions, and a satisfactory arrangement being come to with the maternity home authorities with reference to the charge to be made for training our nurses in obstetrical cases there, each nurse wishing it should be permitted to go to the home for the period of one month either at the end of her two years' course at the hospital or within the last month of that course.

Your committee would also recommend that the maternity home should be paid the sum of $20 per month for each nurse trained at the home.

To meet this expense your committee would recommend that in future the remuneration of pupil nurses should be $5 for the first twelve months, $10 for the next six months, and $15 for the final six months. That if a nurse leaves during her two years' course her salary for the month be applied towards the payment due to the maternity home for her obstetrical training.

Your committee are informed that there will be four cases at the home within the next month, and would therefore recommend that the above scheme be put upon its trial forthwith, and that Miss Ferris, whose two year course expires on the 20th of this month, be the first nurse to receive training at the home.

All of which is respectfully submitted by

J. STUART YATES, Chairman.
CHAS. HAYWARD.

The treasurer submitted his monthly report.

Mr. Yates moved, seconded by Mr Brown, that the special committee who prepared the new system of book-keeping, with the view of ascertaining what salary, if any, should be paid to the treasurer, be authorized to inquire into and report at the next meeting what services the treasurer is doing in connection with the new duties imposed on him, and what time those duties should entail on him. The motion was adopted.

After discussing a number of minor subjects the board adjourned at 10.45.

A REVENGEFUL EMPLOYE.

Was the Man Who Wanted to Blow up Rothschild's Bank.

Paris, Sept. 10.—La Liberte this afternoon says the identity of the miscreant who attempted to explode a bomb in the vestibule of Rothschild's banking house in Rue Lafitte Tuesday last, has been discovered. He was formerly in the employ of the Northern railway company and belongs to an honorable family. He is a professed anarchist. According to La Liberte, he was actuated by motives of personal revenge for his dismissal from the Northern railway company, in his attempt to destroy the Rothschild's bank.

HARDIE IN HOT WATER.

Preaches Socialism to Parsons, Wh Bitterly Denounce Him.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Kier Hardie, the English labor leader, sadly disturbed the usually sedate weekly meeting of Methodist clergymen to-day by a red hot socialistic speech, and was greeted with such a storm of ministerial disapproval that he was compelled to abandon the floor.

Hardie had been invited to address the preachers, and, with several local socialists, attended the meeting. The Englishman proceeded to air his views, loudly applauded by his friends, and finally bitterly denounced the execution of the Chicago anarchists, and eulogized them as pioneers in the new religion.

The storm which greeted this statement almost carried Hardie off his feet. Half a dozen preachers at a time bitterly denounced the sentiments expressed, and the speaker was compelled to sit down. The ministers then proceeded with a scathing denunciation of the speech and the speaker, and Hardie was much offended.

London, Sept. 9.—The Standard this morning says: "There may be places in Chicago where a vindication of the anarchists would meet with rapturous applause, but Mr. Kier Hardie made an extraordinary mistake in thinking that a Methodist audience would like to hear their execution denounced. Directly they discovered what manner of a man he was, they suppressed him with admirable alacrity. Although Chicago may sadly need a new religion it is very unlikely that Mr. Hardie will be acceptable as their prophet, much as we should be inclined to applaud the citizens if they made choice of him in that capacity."

The Daily News says of Mr. Kier Hardie's experience: "Kier Hardie is certainly the poorest creature that ever won any sort of position in English politics. The people of Chicago are to be congratulated upon having found him out in a single night, instead of having, like his unfortunate countrymen, to reckon the process of discovery by years."

A BOY'S CARELESSNESS

Causes Many Deaths and Terrible Suffering in Dubuque, Iowa.

Dubuque, Ia., Sept. 10.—Edward Latshaw, a sub-contractor on the government work on the Mississippi river, had 600 pounds of dynamite stored away in the cellar of a house at Specht's Ferry, 12 miles north of here. Today his son, while practising with a revolver, missed the target, and the bullet entered the cellar and fired the dynamite. The house was blown to splinters, and the following were killed: Edward Latshaw and his wife; Ray Latshaw, 12 years old; Mat Latshaw, 8 years old; Hans Bjornstadt, of Lacrosse, Wis. The wounded are, Matt Faber, of Wabasha, may die; Ed Bench, of Lansing, eye knocked out and badly bruised; Mabel Latshaw, skull fractured.

The dead are terribly mangled. A 4-year-old baby in the party escaped unhurt. Glass in buildings in the hamlet was all broken, and boats on the opposite side of the river were considerably damaged. A special train from Dubuque took physicians to the scene and brought the wounded to hospitals here.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the World's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

SOLDIERS FOR CUBA.

20,000 More Spaniards to be Ready to Go if Needed.

Madrid, Sept. 10.—A third army corps of 20,000 is to be organized ready to sail for Cuba in November in case of necessity. Advices have been received from Cuba that the Spanish defeated the insurgents at Seboroul on Friday. The insurgents had ten killed and three of the Spanish were wounded. A Spanish deserter was captured and shot. The Imperial's Havana dispatch says that the troops under Col. Oliveria defeated a strong band of insurgents at Sitzo Grande after a hand-to-hand fight in which 15 insurgents were killed by machettes. At Guiana the rebels surprised the soldiers who were out foraging. The latter beat off the insurgents, losing three of their number, while the insurgents lost six.

Colon, Aug. 29.—Geronimo Ossa, a member of the municipality of Panama, made a proposition that an address be sent to all the municipalities in the republic, asking them to join that of Panama in petitioning the supreme government to recognize as belligerents the Cubans now fighting for their political emancipation. The author and Santos Jaguilefe approved the proposition and the rest voted against it.

Panama advices state that active preparations are being made at La Boca, the Pacific end of the canal, preparing machinery, etc., and this work will shortly be resumed. It is rumored that an employe has been sent to Kingston, Jamaica, for the laborers, but this cannot be believed, as the company can get all the hands required here at $1.20 a day.

The government of the department of Antiqua has ordered that the $800,000 voted by the assembly to be expended in the Independence day fete be handed to the treasurers of charitable institutions of the city of Medellin. A project is on foot in Bogota to expend the money usually voted by the general and departmental treasurers to bull baiting, music, fire crackers, etc., on Independence day, in constructing an exhibition building and in defraying the expenses of an annual exhibition.

SITUATION IN ARMENIA.

Further Disturbing Reports from the Much Persecuted Section.

New York, Sept. 9.—Horant M. Kirketchjan, general secretary of the Armenian relief association, has given the following to the press, containing a direct communication from the valley of Moosh, being an extract from a private letter, dated in August, not written for publication: "The remnant of the people from the Sassoun region have returned to their villages. They are rebuilding the ruins, but the government is raising obstacles so that the rebuilding may be retarded. The government has let loose the Bakrantsi Kourdes over the hills of Sassoun. Our people who have returned to their villages are in terror and dismay. Kourdes who are friendly with our village have sent us word saying, 'For the love of God, arise, and flee, that you may save yourselves. The government has brought the Kourdes for the purpose of utterly exterminating what is left of your people.'

"This has thrown the people into great anguish. Last year they had some arms with which to defend themselves, this year they have no means of protection or defense, and are in the utter extremity of misery. We see no hope of assistance from God or from man."

London, Sept. 9.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Kar, Armenia, says that the entire district of Kemakas is surrounded by the Turkish troops dispatched by Zezzi Pasha under the plea of arresting Armenian revolutionists. The villages of Karni, Tirugnener, Tortan, Horohni and Marig are reported to have been completely sacked and the population, aggregating 5000 people, foully treated. The men were tortured and the women and children were ravished. The four monasteries of Aakwank, Scurphop, Rvorithchoga and Souphagob were sacked and the altars and images were destroyed. The excitement and alarm are universal. Authentic information from Moosh is to the effect that an anti-Christian society of Turkish officials has been formed there and at Bitlis with the avowed intention of slaughtering Christians on the event of the acceptance by the Porte of the scheme of reformation presented by the Powers. It is declared that Consul Hampson is to be the first victim.

STREET PAVING DEFEATED

Most of Petitions Against the Local Improvement Plan and Wood Blocks.

Tenders for the Copper Wire for the Fire Alarm System Opened.

All of the councilmen except Ald. McLellan, who is in California, were at the meeting last evening, and a considerable amount of business was disposed of. There was a flood of petitions against the proposed street paving by local improvement, and the whole scheme is very likely defeated. Tenders for copper wire for the fire alarm service were opened, while printing tenders were laid over for a week.

Tom Kains wrote saying that if the expenditure of public money on Lewis street and the alley way running to Menzies made them public streets they were such, and also that if Lewis street had not been taken over it could be closed at any time.

Ald. Humphrey was of the opinion that Lewis street was city property but added that the city did not want the alley.

On motion of Ald. Macmillan the street committee was instructed to inform Mr. Kains as to the city's stand.

D. R. Harris, agent for the Douglas estate, wrote asking for the removal of the fences on Belleville street to permit connection with the sewer.

It is impossible to do that at present and Mr. Harris must be so informed.

T. W. Glover, of Toronto, wrote urging the payment of $100 for injuries received at Victoria West some time since.

Ald. Humphrey said the claim was a strange one. The man left the city the day after he was hurt and no one knew anything about the case.

The letter was received and laid on the table.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 9, 1895.

To His Worship the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Victoria.

Gentlemen: I beg to apply to you for permission to remove a monument erected by the members of the medical profession of Victoria to the memory of the late Dr. Renwick on a lot in the cemetery paid for and held by me, and of which I hold the title.

The funeral of the late Dr. Renwick was ordered by Mr. Paul, as I understood, on behalf of the medical profession, but some time after the funeral, which took place from Mr. Paul's house, both he and they repudiated all liability. I then sued Mr. Paul for same in the small debts court and was non-suited.

The medical men in the meantime erected a monument on the ground without paying me for it or for the funeral, and without my permission, and in reply to a request by me to remove same informed me through Dr. Fraser, the secreary of the Victoria Medico-Chirurgical Society, that the said society was not in existence at the time of the funeral and does not consider itself in any way responsible for the expenses incurred in burying Dr. Renwick. I enclose copy of letter received.

In removing the tombstone from my land I shall be careful to commit no act of desecration.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
THOS. STOREY.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 19, 1895.

To Mr. Storey.

Dear Sir: In reply to your communication of the 3rd inst., I am instructed by the Victoria Medico-Chirurgical Society to state that the society was not formed at the time of the late Dr. Renwick's death. The society not being in existence at the time of the funeral could not have given any instructions regarding it. This society does not consider itself in any way responsible for the expenses incurred in burying Dr. Renwick.

I am also instructed to call your attention to the cemetery by-law, which provides a severe penalty for desecrating graves.

Any desecration of the grave, fence or tombstone of the late Dr. Renwick will be a breach of the cemetery by-law and will be punished accordingly.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) R. L. FRASER,
Secy. Vic. Med.-Chir. Soc'y.

It was decided to refer the matter to the cemetery committee to investigate.

T. E. Lawrie wrote complaining of an open drain on Springfield avenue. Referred to the street committee.

G. Alexander Hankey wrote urging consideration for his water purifying process. Mr. Hankey will be informed of what Victoria is doing to improve the its system.

Cecelia Warren wrote asking that Maple street be improved.

Ald. Macmillan said that the matter should receive favorable consideration. Referred to the street committee.

W. Duncan, a member of No. 3 fire company, wrote complaining that Chief Deasy had ordered him off the hose reel on Saturday night. The reason given was that the reel was overcrowded yet another man got on in his place later on. The fire wardens will investigate.

A letter from W. W. Northcott transmitted another from Eberts & Taylor, giving an opinion on the application of Bishop Lemmens to have St. Louis College exempted from taxation. The solicitors wrote that they could find no authority in the municipal act for doing so. His lordship will be so informed.

Superintendent Hutchinson recommending that no light be placed on Belton avenue as the Victoria West circuit is already overcrowded, and reporting the completion of the changes in the tramway line on Cadboro Bay road. Received and filed.

Building Inspector Northcott reported that the building on Yates street next to the city pumping station was a dangerous nuisance. It will be demolished.

The tenders to supply five miles of copper wire for the fire alarm system were as follows: R. B. McMicking, $45 per mile; Canada General Electric company, $174.25; Cunningham & Hinton, $175; F. C. Holden, $155. The fire wardens will award to the lowest tenderer.

A large amount of petitions against the proposed paving of the central portion of the city were received, and it is believed that a sufficient number of property owners have signed them to defeat the plan entirely. It was thought that View street had escaped, but that is improbable. The first petition was a general one, and was signed as follows:

Government street—L. Goodacre, C. Bossi, W. A. Oliver, Sarah Feigenbaum, Anna Pittock, Belmont Tanning Co., Estate G. Johnston, Trustees Green, Worlock & Co., Theophilus T. Green, Edward Musgrave, Estate J. W. Douglas, H. & H. B. Young, David Spencer, A. J. Langley & Co., D. R. Harris, Alice de Weiderhold, Jane Dallas, M. Harris, Edith L. Higgins, J. D. Oliver, S. J. Potts, A. Phillips, Mrs. C. Humphreys, B. C. L. & I. Agency, Estate G. Johnston, A. J. Langley, C. W. R. Thompson, D. R. Burnes, J. Stuart Yates.

View street—Forbes Geo. Vernon, L. B. & J. B. Joseph, Simon Anderson, Leo. J. Boscowitz.

Broad street—Estate G. Johnston, Estate Green, Worlock & Co., Edward Musgrave, Douglas Estate, D. Spencer, C. P. L. & M. Co., Robert Heron, Simon Anderson, A. & W. Wilson.

Victoria, Sept. 5, 1895.

Sir: Adverting to a notice dated the 21st August, 1895, signed by the city assessor, notifying me as owner of lot 161, block 1, of a proposal to pave Yates and Government streets, and that the amount to be assessed against my property is $262.50 for Yates and a similar amount for Government street. Whilst not at all objecting to the principle of street paving and to equitably contributing towards the cost of the same, I am compelled to petition, which I do now, against the present proposed work for the following reasons: (1) The work is one for the benefit of the entire city and it is unjust to visit the whole cost upon the property owners immediately adjacent; (2) I have no information showing that the council have collected evidence or are guided by competent scientific and practical opinion in concluding to pave with wooden blocks, the method of paving, as I understand it, intending to be adopted, and I think it dangerous in the extreme to make experiments in a matter such as this; (3) I have no information of any proper estimate of the cost of the work, and there is no guarantee that the work will not cost two or three times as much as the sum now in contemplation, or on the other hand that it will necessarily cost as much; (4) The conclusion to pave with the material indicated seems to me to have been arrived at without due consideration.

Yours truly,
THEODORE DAVIE.

The Mayor—That is the most remarkable letter I ever heard from a man in his position. It is an insult to the council and engineer.

A petition from A. Gilmore read: "Yates street can very well wait a year or two longer and perhaps money may be a little more plentiful; and in the second place, according to my experience, I have no faith in the block or wooden pavement. I have seen it tried in 'Frisco years ago and it did not give good satisfaction."

Charles A. Vernon, another petitioner, wrote: "Although I am in favor of paving Government street where my lots 1 and 2, block 75, are situated, I certainly must strongly petition against wood blocks being used, which are obsolete and discarded in the principal cities of Europe and America as being cheap and nasty, and would not in my opinion be adapted for our climate."

C. W. R. Thompson thus expressed himself: "I refuse my consent to this assessment on the ground that the proposed expenditure is unnecessary and ill-timed, and the council have not made sufficient inquiry as to the best material."

There were also petitions from His Lordship Bishop Lemmens, Edward and the Misses Musgrave, and the B. C. Land and Investment Agency, Ltd., the Canadian Pacific Land and Mortgage Co., Jesse Cowper, and Joseph Tiernan.

The petitions were all referred to the city assessor as required by the law.

F. J. Claxton and others residing on Fernwood road, petitioned for a six foot cement sidewalk from Fort street to Pandora, and offering to pay their share of it under the local improvement system. Referred to the street committee.

T. M. Graham and others petitioned for a light on Bela and Alfred streets. Referred to the electric light committee.

The finance committee recommended the appropriation of $1308 out of general revenue and $2500 out of the water works loan. The reports took the usual course.

The fire wardens reported recommending the substitution of the offer of Watson, Clarke for that of N. Sabin in connection with the Oaklands fire hall site. This was taken up in connection with an offer from W. V. C. Mewburn, who expressed a willingness to quarter the apparatus in some of his buildings and pay the telephone charges.

Ald. Wilson said the wardens favored the Clarke offer because the site was more centrally located. The people in the neighborhood favored the Clarke offer too.

Ald. Macmillan questioned the feelings of the people as to remaining in the city and said they should be very careful before erecting a building. He believed the Clarke site most central but the Mewburn offer had its advantages.

Ald. Hall supported the offer of Mr. Mewburn as best.

After considerable discussion it was decided to lay the matter over for a time. It seems there is considerable local feeling over the matter and the aldermen desire to obtain exact information as to the best site.

The fire wardens reported sustaining the action of Chief Deasy in suspending W. J. Ledingham some time since. Received and filed.

Chief Deasy reported the number of fires during August. He recommended that the old manual engines and the steam fire engine Tiger be advertised for sale, and that the sidewalk in front of No. 2 hall be repaved. After some discussion the report was received and filed.

The sewerage committee reported and recommended that the sewer on Menzies street be continued from the present terminus at Superior street to Simcoe street and that the sum of $1250 estimated cost by the engineer be appropriated from the sewerage loan fund of 1894, and placed at the disposal of the sewerage committee to carry out the work by day labor. Received and adopted.

The sewerage committee recommended the construction of a surface drain down the Johnson street ravine as a means of abating the nuisance. The cost was estimated at $4250, and it was recommended that the money be taken from the board of health funds. The report recommended that the property owners be required to enter into an agreement to give the city access to the property.

Ald. Macmillan made a strong speech in favor of the project. The funds might not be available this fall or not until next year, but it was a step in the proper direction. There was no question about the crying need for the abatement of the nuisance, and he contended that the pipe would be superior to a brick culvert. The report was adopted.

The streets committee reported and recommended the construction of sidewalks on Superior street and Stanley avenue. Received and adopted.

John Stevenson and other residents of Mary street, Victoria West, petitioned for a box drain. Referred to the sewerage committee.

Ald. Williams' motion asking leave for a by-law to regulate the testing of milk and tax the outside dairymen was taken up. It went through, but Ald. Macmillan and Ald. Bragg opposed the tax. That matter will, however, be fought out later. It was decided, on motion of Ald. Macmillan, to have the medical health officer and sanitary officer receive instructions in the testing of milk.

The mayor remarked that after the visitation of the travelling dairy here and all new information obtained from it the health officer would give instructions to milk inspectors to whoever was was appointed inspector for the city.

Ald. Macmillan's motions covering the destruction of the shacks at View and Douglas streets, and on the alley off Johnson street between Government and Broad streets, were carried.

Speaking to a question of privilege, Ald. Cameron read the Colonist editorial entitled "The Law Disregarded," respecting the award of the sewer pipe contract. He charged that the article was untrue and unfair. He claimed that the committee had the fullest authority for all that it did, and a showing to that effect would be made in a full report on the transaction later on.

Ald. McMillan spoke similarly, and defied any man or any paper to attack his character, and said he would meet his accusers on the platform in due time.

Ald. Williams proposed that His Honor Lieut.-Governor Chapleau, of Quebec, be presented with an address, but nothing was done with the matter.

When the printing tenders were called for, it was found that there was only one, and the matter was laid over for a week.

THIRTEEN MORE MISSING.

In the Burning Michigan Mine—No Hope of Rescue.

Houghton, Mich., Sept. 10.—Huge volumes of smoke still issue from the mouths of shafts Nos. 1, 2, 3, showing that the awful fire which started in the Osceola copper mine shortly before noon Saturday is still raging fiercely. The bodies of 30 miners entombed are still lying somewhere below the surface, without a doubt dead, suffocated by smoke and gas. Besides those reported yesterday 13 more men are missing. At the time the alarm was sounded over 200 men were underground, and all would have escaped had they used the proper precaution. Several miners in their flight passed a group of seven or eight men who had stopped to rest and were smoking their pipes. They seemed to be in no hurry or to think of danger. When told to hurry to the surface they remarked that they had plenty of time. Not one of them reached the surface. The skips were kept running up and down all day Saturday, in order to give any of the entombed miners a chance to escape if they could reach the skip alive, but none came up. Another attempt will be made to reach the men in the morning. There is no danger of the bodies being burned, as it is generally thought the men escaped from the burning shaft to some of the drifts leading to other shafts and were overcome by gas and smoke before they could reach a place of safety. This being the case, the bodies will be recovered as soon as the fire is gotten under control and the gas leaves the mine. The shaft has been surrounded all day by thousands of people, all hoping that some sign or word would be gotten from the men, but they have now all returned to their homes, fearing the worst. All hope has been given up by the officials of ever rescuing any of the men alive.

—There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and so get cured.

THE PORTE'S DECISION

On Armenian Reform—The Powers Will Not be Satisfied.

Constantinople, Sept. 10.—The dragomans of the British, French and Russian embassies have received the decision of the Porte with reference to Armenia. The Porte's proposed concession entitles the dragomans of the three powers to deal with the Turkish committee of control, which is to superintend the application of reform. No Christian valinor mutessaria will be appointed in the administrative offices, but will be chosen in proportion to the population. The mutessaria will be elected to the councils of the elders, and a constabulary will be established. It is not believed that the concessions will satisfy the powers. It is pointed out that owing to the persecution the Christian population is so diminished in many districts that it is now in the minority. The officials thereof would always be Mohammedans.

MANAGE TO MAKE THEIR HAUL.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 9.—Late reports from the seal islands indicate that the North American Commercial Company have taken about 15,000 skins, the maximum limit imposed during the season closed August 1. Reports received early in the season led to the belief that there was an unusual scarcity of seals on the islands, and that the Commercial Company would not be able to take more than a fraction of the quota, but subsequent reports show no material decrease in the number herding on the islands since last year.

MR. OUIMET'S HEROISM.

L. Z. Joncas, M. P., has been letting in some light on the position of Minister Ouimet, and incidentally upon the general status of the school question. Le Moniteur de Levis, a paper which appears to speak for Senator Angers, had been attacking the minister of public works, and Mr. Joncas thus defended the latter: "Le Moniteur affirms that if Mr. Ouimet is to-day minister of public works, it is because he feared that if he held out Sir Hector Langevin or D. Girouard, the member for Jacques Cartier, would immediately fill his place. This is an affirmation which is contrary to the facts, and is an insult to these three men. Sir H. Langevin has been the victim of certain political circumstances which it is not necessary to recall, but nothing justifies the writer in Le Moniteur to state that he was prepared to perform an act unworthy of his political past. And if to destroy these false assertions certain private matters have to be made public, I do not hesitate to speak. I must be pardoned if I am indiscreet. Mr. Ouimet so little feared that Sir Hector Langevin or Mr. Girouard should take his place, that in my presence, on several occasions, he begged Mr. Girouard to accept his portfolio, being convinced that he would best serve the cause of the Manitoba minority by remaining friendly to the administration, but being anxious at the same time to give his friend, Mr. Angers, a token of his sympathy and friendship, he decided during the morning of the 11th of July to remain out of the cabinet, but to continue to support the government as a private member. He informed some of his friends who had met in his office of his decision and employed all means possible to induce Mr. Girouard to take his place. The latter persisted in his refusal. Between noon and 1 o'clock that day another meeting of the friends of the school cause was held and it was only after having received the positive assurance that remedial legislation would be submitted at the opening of the next session, even if negotiations were still pending and after having made sure of the support I have spoken of that Mr. Ouimet consented to return to his place among his colleagues." This seems to make Mr. Ouimet's fidelity and heroism stand out in bold relief, but where does it leave the cabinet?

AFRAID OF THE LIGHT.

Chicago University, which was established practically with money given by John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, started out with a Mr. Bemis as professor of political economy. In the pursuit of his duty Professor Bemis felt constrained to teach his pupils that trusts were wrong in principle and opposed to the public interest. The Chicago gas trust is one of the biggest of its kind, and is upheld by the Standard Oil Company, of which Mr. Rockefeller is the main pillar. Therefore it came about that Professor Bemis had a bad fall. The story is thus told by the New York Voice:—

"Not long ago a prominent officer in the gas trust, already controlling the gas supply of over 40 cities, said to the professor: 'Professor Bemis, we can't and don't intend to tolerate your work any longer. It means millions to us. And if we can't convert you we are going to down you.' How did the corporation proceed to down him? First, by refusing to grant the customary reduction in gas rates to the university so long as Prof. Bemis was with it. Now, by securing a call from the subservient administration for Prof. Bemis' resignation. The gas trust, by common report, is being sustained by the Standard Oil Company, the head of which, John D. Rockefeller, endowed the university. Mr. Rockefeller and his business associates have the right to establish a school to teach whatever they like, and to have any professor fired who doesn't suit their views. But the public will know what to think of such a school and how to discount all its teachings on subjects allied in any way with the money interests of its creators. It can still do a splendid work in teaching the languages, abstract science, and higher mathematics; but when it comes to political science and social science, the world now knows that the stamp of monopoly must hereafter be upon that sort of teaching and upon the professor, whosoever he may be, who consents to fill the vacant chair."

"Trusts" cannot afford to have an encounter with economic truths; it pays them better to keep out of the way in the darkness. In that respect protection is one gigantic trust.

THE CHOY WAN CASE.

To the Editor: For fear a misconstruction might be placed upon my letter published in the Colonist of Sunday, permit me to state that I had no desire whatever to reflect upon the Times in regard to the report of the Choy Wan case, as published in the columns of your paper. The letter was written rather hurridely, and perhaps is somewhat unjust to the Times. The idea which I wished to convey was that the source of the evidence given in the matter was somewhat inaccurate, and not that the Times was in any way responsible for the inaccuracies referred to. COWICHAN-ALBERNI.

To the Editor: On the evening of the 4th there was a meeting at Duncan's, called by Mr. R. B. Halhed, one of the candidates for Cowichan-Albeni district. I noticed particularly that when any person him what his ideas were concerning the Government spending money where it was not needed, he in every instance upheld the methods of the Government. In the matter of the appointment of an extra constable at Duncan's he was fully in accord, and said he would like to see more police protection, showing, of course, that he thinks the people here a rowdy lot. I could plainly understand his idea for upholding everything the Government has done (which is very little good). Some parties at the meeting were so overjoyed, and such staunch followers of the Government that they wanted the voting to take place there and then, thinking that Mr. Halhed had things all his own way. I venture to say that Mr. Huff, the other candidate, had many friends present at the meeting, but if one attempted to speak he was promptly snapped up by Mr. Halhed's supporter's, and confusion and noise would begin, compelling him to sit down. Mr. Huff did not have much to say, but at every meeting at which he has spoken he has shown himself to be a man of common sense and good judgment. There is one fault with him, however, and that is he is a supporter of the Government. Still, for all that, he does not uphold all the unnecessary expenditure that has been made. His views on most questions meet with the approval of the majority of the electors, and, I think, that with all the spite against him he will be returned at the head of the poll. As there is no Opposition candidate, I shall give Mr. Huff my vote.

THE LUMBER COMBINE.

Not a Trust, but for Protection Against British Columbia.

San Francisco, Sept. 10.—The Central Lumber Company, the small nucleus of the gigantic lumber combination, has not been incorporated without careful consideration on the part of the lumber men of the coast. They say that a combination of interests has become imperative owing to the depressed condition of the trade. D. H. Bibb, of the Golden Gate Lumber Company, said:

"We have been talking about this combination for over two years. It is not a trust; it is a combination. It is still a good way from perfect formation, and in fact the preliminaries have barely been settled. The competition from British Columbia is too much for us. The Canadian lumberman has every advantage on his side. He does not need to buy his timber; he merely leases it from the government and pays for his logs as he takes them out. His labor costs far less than ours, and his stumpage is 25 cents where ours is $1. The consequence is that the importation of British Columbia lumber is steadily growing larger and larger. American mills have been forced to shut down, wages have been reduced, and for three years lumber has been sold below cost in this city. We cannot increase the consumption. We cannot compete with British Columbia, and we must rely upon increasing our foreign trade by establishing new markets in China, Japan, Australia and elsewhere.

"I do not see that the combination can raise prices locally, and if it did it would be a good thing, for it would mean living wages for the laborer and a better condition of business all round. There is no field in which labor finds more employment. From the moment we begin work in the forest to the time the cut lumber is piled in the yards labor is continually employed, and if we can succeed in cutting more timber we can employ more hands. Stevedores were formerly paid $4, now the rate has fallen as low as $2 for handling lumber. Men in the woods were formerly paid $90 and board; now the rate is $25 and board. Sailors used to get $40 a month on lumber schooners; now they are paid $25. A combination cannot at this late date restore the old rates, but it can perhaps improve the present ones considerably, and, above all, increase our volume of business, which means benefit to all."

The redwood lumbermen have known for some time that the combination of pine lumbermen was to be formed. To them the announcement that it has been formed was not much of a surprise.

PREVOST'S HEARING.

Charged With Appropriating Money Received as Compensation for a Sealer.

Accountant Goffin Tells How the Registrar's Banking Account Was Kept.

The preliminary examination of James Charles Prevost, late registrar of the supreme court, commenced this afternoon at the city police court before Police Magistrate Macrae. The court room was crowded, a great deal of interest is being taken in the case. Prevost felt his position keenly and was very nervous.

Superintendent Hussey swore to the information issued since Prevost was in court and the case was proceeded with. The first charge was that J. C. Prevost, on or about December 22nd, 1893, being then in the employ of Her Majesty, did steal the sum of $3154.49, the property of Her Majesty.

Mr. A. G. Smith, deputy attorney-general, appeared for the crown, and Mr. J. A. Aikman for Prevost.

Mr. Smith put in the British Columbia Gazette of May 3, 1870, containing the notice of Prevost's appointment as registrar, and three orders of the supreme court in the case of the Bank of British Columbia vs. the Vancouver Ship Building and Trading Company. The first of these orders appointed Prevost temporary receiver of the estate of the defendant company to receive money due by the Dominion government to the company. The second order made him permanent receiver, and the third made him receiver in the suit of a number of residents of Vancouver against the same company.

Alfred Flett, deputy minister of finance, was the first witness. He identified several letters written from the treasury department to J. C. Prevost, who was then registrar.

C. A. Goffin, accountant of the Bank of British Columbia, was the next witness. Defendant had two accounts at the bank. One was "J. C. Prevost, private account," and the other "J. C. Prevost, registrar's account." On the 20th of June, 1892, a new account was opened in the name of "The Registrar of the Supreme Court of British Columbia for the time being." That account was opened in accordance with written instructions from the treasury department. The amount transferred to that account was $5679.27. On June 24th, 1893, a deposit of $5112 was received from J. C. Prevost and placed in his private account.

The deposit was made up of two cheques, one from the Marine Department at Ottawa, drawn by A. R. Milne on the Bank of Montreal, Ottawa, for $5102. The balance of the deposit was made up of a cheque for $10 on Bodwell & Irving. He recognized a cheque produced for $3154.49, drawn by J. C. Prevost upon the account of "the registrar of the Supreme court of British Columbia for the time being." The amount was paid out of and charged to that account. That was not the account to which the deposit of $5112 was made.

A. R. Milne, C. M. G., collector of customs, was called. In 1893 he and Captain Gaudin were deputized by the imperial government through the department of marine and fisheries at Ottawa, to distribute the amount awarded by the imperial government for loss sustained during the year 1891 by British sealing vessels by reason of insufficient notice of the modus vivendi in Behring Sea. A claim was put in by the owners of the Vancouver Belle, the Vancouver Ship Building and Trading Company. There were other contestants for this claim. The amount awarded was $5102 in all, including $100 allowed for preparing the claim. The amount was paid to James C. Prevost by order of the court. The receipt was produced. It was signed by J. C. Prevost. The amount was paid by a cheque in favor of J. C. Prevost, receiver of the supreme court, dated June 21st, 1893.

P. AE. Irving, of the firm of Bodwell & Irving, testified. He recognized the cheque produced, made out in favor of Bodwell & Irving and signed by James C. Prevost. The amount of the cheque, $3154.49, was received by the firm as agents for Corbould, McColl, Wilson & Campbell, of Vancouver. It was in payment of three judgments against the Vancouver Ship Building and Trading Company.

MR. BALFOUR'S POSITION.

The Daily News Attacks Him—Jack the Ripper Again.

London, Sept. 10.—The Pope has approved the nomination of Rev. Dr. Kennedy as rector of the American College at Rome.

The Daily News says: Mr. Balfour's letter is one of the most extraordinary documents that was ever signed by a British minister. Mr. Balfour is now the authorized exponent of the government's financial policy. What he says, the treasury does. Is it to be endured that the first lord of the treasury should treat the gold standard as a mere subject of academic debate? He does not seem to grasp the mono-metallist's view of the situation. A Mohammedan archbishop of Canterbury would not be more incongruous that a bi-metallist first lord of the treasury. The substance of Mr. Balfour's letter was that his views on bi-metallism has undergone no change, and that he was and always had been in favor of an international greement, but he did not believe tht an international conference at this time would effect such an agreement.

Another supposed Jack the Ripper murder has been discovered at Kensel Green. The victim was an unfortunate woman of the outcast class, and her throat was cut from ear to ear, and her head fearfully battered with a stone. No trace of the murderer has been discovered.

BUSINESS IS IMPROVING

In All Directions, and the Tone Everywhere Strong.

New York, Sept. 9.—The Evening Post's special London cable says: Business is improving in all directions and the tone to-day was everywhere strong, notwithstanding high Contangoe rates. Kaffirs showed increased buoyancy and the extraordinary vitality of the market is undoubtedly directing attention to other sections, and more especially to Yankees. The latter are not very active as a whole, but there were individual instances of much animation, notably Denver, St. Paul and Wabash. Louisville & Nashville showed dullness, but better things are anticipated for the market in the near future. Investment stocks are still rising, and Argentine issues are in much favor.

A BOY'S BAD END.

He Leaves an Honorable Home and and Dies by Lynching.

Young Garland Stemler, one of the men hanged by lynchers in Yreka, Cal., had but recently been a student at Corvallis. He was yet but a boy. Six months ago a student in the heydey of youth and health and hope, he died an ignominious death Sunday at the end of the lyncher's rope. Instead of continued honorable life among guileless companions, he went out of the world in company with murderers, denied even the customary honor of a fair trial by a jury of his peers. His life is a broken column covered with blood and odium, a shock to all human kind who see it, an enduring and horrible nightmare to his family. Rarely is there so black an ending of a 19-years' life.

When Stemler came to the forks of the road he took the wrong track. Instead of going straight ahead, giving close attention to his studies, respect to his seniors and due consideration to the rights and wishes of others, he turned aside to disturb public worship, to chase young girls, and to court attention by ungentlemanly and discourteous acts. Like many other young men he chose to be a "smart aleck," and he played the role too well. In the Yreka jail cell, when the mob was battering down the doors to lead him out to his fate, he saw too late that he had travelled the wrong road. He may have been innocent of the crime laid to his door; if so, there is all the more reason for his career to strike terror to other young men prone to cultivate rough and bad companionship, and to warn them that there is danger ahead.

Mothers should tell to their boys the terrible story of Garland Stemler's wretched fate. His agonizing cry at the last fearful moment, "Tell my mother that I am innocent," should ring always in the ears of our boys, and teach them that, guilty or innocent, all men are judged by the company they keep.—Corvallis Times.

The principal's monthly prizes were presented to the above pupils by Trustee Mrs. Grant, in the presence of a number of the parents of the children on Friday last. Mrs. Grant in a few bright words congratulated the prize winners and spoke encouragingly to the teachers of their work.

—Mrs. Baker presided at a well attended meeting of the Women's Council held last evening. The following resolution was passed unanimously: "That the National Council of Women of Canada, representing all sections, parties and religious creeds in the Dominion, having heard with profound sorrow and horror of the recent sufferings of their sisters in Armenia, desire to convey to them the expression of their deepest sorrow and of their earnest desire to help and encourage them in anyway in their power. They earnestly pray that the afflictions which have been so heroically endured may be speedily brought to an end, and that through the over-ruling providence of the Almighty Father a happier state of affairs may be established."

—The Sons of Erin will meet to-morrow night at Pioneer hall. It is the first meeting of the winter series, and all members are urged to attend. It is the custom of the society to suspend meetings during the summer.

—There will be a special meeting of the city council to-morrow evening to take up a lot of unfinished business. There are a number of matters on the table and pending in other ways, and it is the intention to take some of them up.

—There will be a meeting of the residents of Oaklands on Thursday evening at the home of Andrew Ohlson, to consider fire protection matters. It will very likely be decided by vote which of the sites offered for the fire hall is the most desirable.

—The three K. of P. lodges have appointed a general committee to arrange for the organization of a lodge of the Rathbone sisters, the companion order. The name is that of the founder of the order. A lodge has already been organized at New Westminster.

—Elizabeth Wiggins, who put some ashes in a wooden box and caused a fire that resulted in the fire department being called at her house on Chatham street Saturday morning, was convicted in police court this morning of a breach of the Fire Prevention By-Law. Ashford, Miss L. Reid, T. Bryant and Mrs. F. H. Sherman and child.

—P. H. Champien, a blue jacket of H. M. S. Royal Arthur, was tried by a court martial, of which Capt. May was president, on a charge of theft yesterday morning. He was convicted, ordered imprisoned for nine months with hard labor and dishonorably discharged. He was accused of stealing different articles including a watch from his companions on board the flagship and the evidence against him was conclusive. He entered upon his term of service at the Provincial jail this morning.

—Charles Reinhart was tried summarily before Magistrate Macrae this morning on the charge of having stolen a lot of silver ware and wearing apparel from Mollie Rosenerantz, of 45 Chatham street. Part of the property had been discovered at a pawnbroker's shop where Reinhart pawned it, and that with other evidence went to make up a clear case against him. He was convicted and sent to prison for six months. That sentence and the one of two months for stealing a ring from Mrs. Babchuck's store will run concurrently.

—Andrew Miller was arrested last night on Chatham street by Constable Kavanagh for brutally assaulting an Indian. The latter was so badly injured that he was taken to the Jubilee Hospital, and it is impossible to say how long it will be before he will recover. He was kicked on the head and stomach and badly cut and bruised. He was unable to appear in police court this morning, and as the police reported that he was very sick the case was adjourned until Tuesday next to give him ample time to recover. The assault is said to have been virtually unprovoked.

—Sequah delivered his promised lecture on Hawaii last evening to an audience which packed every part of A. O. U. W. Hall. In dealing with his subject he related the incidents leading to the reform meeting of 1887 in Honolulu, its causes and results and took his audience through the events of the 1893 revolution, the deposing of Queen Lil and the establishment of the Provisional government with the assistance of a foreign power. He spoke of the wrongs inflicted on the Hawaiian people and explained that the present government of Hawaii, though a provisional government, only represented a minority of the white people and had not the confidence of the Hawaiian people; that the government of the United States had rightly refused to annex the Hawaiian Islands until the Hawaiian people had expressed their approval, which, the lecturer stated, the Hawaiian people will not do. The subejct was dealt with in a masterly manner and was very much appreciated by the large audience.

—Under the direction of Mrs. Moffatt a hive of the Ladies of the Maccabees was partially organized yesterday, at a meeting held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Mrs. Sarah McKilligan was appointed Past Lady Commander and Mrs. Maria Grant Lady Commander. At a meeting held this afternoon the organization is to be completed. The objects of the society are thus set forth in a prospectus issued by the Supreme Hive:—"To promote the best interests and general welfare of the Order of the Macabees, by uniting fraternally the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Knights of the Macabees and other ladies who are socially acceptable, between 16 and 70 years of age, and to provide for life, funeral and disability and old age benefits to those of sound bodily health between 16 and 52 years of age. To aid its own members, and those dependent upon them, and the Knights of the Maccabees and their families whenever found needing and deserving of it. To educate its members, socially, morally and intellectually. To create a fund for the relief of sick and distressed members, and in general to care for the living and bury the dead. To establish an endowment fund from which to pay death and disability benfits."

—George E. Martin, eldest son of the late George Martin, died at the home of his mother, 141 Simcoe street, James Bay, last evening at 8.40 o'clock. He was one of the best known and most popular young men in the city. Heart disease was the cause of his death, and the young man was only seriously ill for a short time. He was store keeper at McLellan's cannery, a position which he had held for five years, and came down from the north a month ago. Previously to that he had worked for seven years at the dry goods store of Wm. Craft. He was a native of this city and was born Dec. 5, 1893. He was a member of the A. O. F., and was a Past Chief Ranger of Court Vancouver, which will attend the funeral in a body. The funeral will take place from his mother's residence at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and there will be services at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church half an hour later.

—Hon. J. A. Chapleau, Madame Chapleau, Hon. Mr. Royal and M. Kleczkowski went down to Esquimalt this morning and were received on board H. M. S. Royal Arthur. This evening they dine at Government House. During his stay here M. Kleczkowski is looking into the question of the appointment of a French consul to succeed Mr. Snowden, who resigned last year. Mr. Graham has been acting as consul since Mr. Snowden resigned. The French consul-general yesterday visited St. Ann's convent, St. Joseph's Hospital and other places. The party will not go to Seattle, as at first proposed, but will probably leave on Friday for Okanagan to visit Lord and Lady Aberdeen. They will afterwards visit Edmonton, near which place there is a large French settlement which Mr. Kleczkowski wishes to visit. They expect to reach Montreal by the 28th.

—The Beatrice was not seized for alleged use of firearms in Behring sea, as stated by one of her crew to a Times reporter and so published in the Times last evening. When the letters to the local authorities were opened late yesterday afternoon it was learned that the schooner had been seized for failing to make proper entries in her log of all her sealing operations as required by law. The Beatrice is in the custody of the collector of customs and the case will be brought before the Admiralty court in due time.

—When the cases of Ham Chee and Chah Quan, charged with assaulting Chin Fook Gue, were called in police court this morning, it was announced that the prosecution did not care to proceed and a dismissal was asked for. Magistrate Macrae was not disposed to permit anyone to make that use of the court, and ordered Mr. Gue to pay $4, the costs in the cases, before he ordered the charges dismissed.

—At the hearing in police court this morning of Bessie Sanburn charged with stealing a jacket from, and wilfully damaging property belonging to Mrs. Thain, it developed that the accused lady was drunk and had no intention whatever of doing any of the terrible things charged against her. She felt very badly over it all when sober, and as there was an absence of intent the case was dismissed.

—The funeral of Mr. Frederick Smith's infant son took place to-day at 2 p.m. from the family residence, 14 Parry street. The little one was laid to rest under a wealth of flowers contributed by sympathizing friends. Rev. Mr. Barber officiated. The pall bearers were May Anderson, Berta Wrigleworth, Clara Vero, Minnie Sonic.

—Bluejackets Hall and Meyler of H. M. S. Wild Swan, charged with assaulting Officers Carter and Clayard, this morning pleaded guilty before Mr. Justice Walkem. His Lordship deferred giving sentence until 11 a.m. Thursday, remarking that as they had pleaded guilty, he would be as lenient as possible.

—A Chinaman with a pair of diamond earrings which he was trying to dispose of was arested last evening by Constable Abel. He was trying to sell them for $1 whereas they are worth a considerable sum. The police hold them for identification.

—The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. to reorganize the foot ball club and to form Association and Rugby teams for the season has been unavoidably postponed for a few days. Due notice will be given of the meeting.

—The new pumping plant at Beaver Lake in the use of the contractors was started up last evening and is working admirably. The new boiler and engine furnish ample power for the plant.

—It is announced that the steamer City of Kingston will return to her run on the Victoria-Tacoma route on Thursday. Her repairs are progressing very favorably and are about completed.

—The steamer Schome will carry away a shipment of 800 cases of salmon this evening. They are to be shipped east over the Northern Pacific to points in eastern Canada.

—There will be a band concert at the Mount Baker Hotel to-morrow evening. The band of H. M. S. Royal Arthur will play the programme announced for last Saturday.

—This evening the steamers Maud and Mischief leave for the West Coast and the Barbara Boscowitz goes north. All have full cargoes of freight.

—Captain Roberts, of the steamer Willapa, left this morning for the Sound and will leave in the morning for Alaska with his steamer.

—Cures a cough. Adams' Licorice Tutti Frutti. Allow no imitations to be palmed off on you.

—You can find much pleasure and gentle exercise by riding the Rambler bicycle; it is a very easy machine to ride, and you need have no fear of its breaking down. Agents—Weiler Bros.

hat claims the head. Our show of fall shapes presents all the current styles. But our hats have something more than style to recommend them. They have value, durability and wear. We keep quality always above par. The most correct styles are worth nothing without it. The three R's in hats are right in style, right in quality, and right in price. These are the rights of hats, so to speak, and it's every man's right to secure them. You're sure of all if you select a hat from our display of everything in vogue.

IN LAVA LANDS.

FROM HONOLULU TO WAIANAE BY RAIL.

Across the terraced levels of the vines,
Under the pillared palms, along the lines
Of lance-leaved oleanders, scented sweet,
Through the pomegranate gardens sped our feet.

On Saturday we were awakened by bugle notes and the sound of marching men. Rushing to the window we were in time to see the soldiers of the Republic returning from morning drill. Many nationalities were represented in the ranks and on the whole they did not strike us as being particularly soldieriy-looking soldiers. After breakfast we "did" the stores. Everything in Honolulu is dear with the exception of the native fruits. Curios in the stores are held at unheard-of, and this is, I suppose because they are extremely difficult to get, the natives being very loath to part with the smallest article from their homes.

Honolulu boasts a railroad line; it runs from the city to the Waianae sugar mill; and it was this trip we laid out for our day's outing. The proprietor of the hotel put up lunch for eight of us, and loudly protesting that he wouldn't think of our carrying it, promised to send it to the station by a small boy in plenty of time for the train. We had the simple confiding faith of innocents abroad, dismissed the matter from our thoughts, and took the first street car for the station. On the seat opposite us as we entered sat a little old fat Hawaiian wreathed in smiles; on his arm was a bag, and a second glance showed him to be quite blind. "Aloha!" he said, and, beaming around the car, he produced a small bamboo tube which he raised to his mouth and blew into it producing an exact imitation of the Warimoo's whistle. "Varimoo," he exclaimed, triumphantly. (In the Hawaiian language "w" is sounded "v") From his bag in succession he drew bamboos of different diameters and gave us the Miowera, the Australia, and a dozen little inter-island steamers with wonderful truth of tone. Arrived at the station we found we had a full half hour before the train started. Opposite, was the Oahu prison, that House of Moloch where political prisoners languish for the laudable crime (?) of being true to loyalty and tradition. The prison projects into the water, and in Honolulu they don't say that a man has been sent to jail, but that he is "on the reef." We got two or three good kodak views of the building, and of the mixed crowd at the station buying tickes, and then casually looked round to locate the lunch. In the baggage room, in the ticket office, on the platform, in the train with sinking hearts we looked, but, no lunch! "Put not your trust in prince's favors or hotelmen's promises," sorrowfully said someone. The conductor yelled "Aboard," and ont pulled the train, when, straight down the track struggling manfully with a great clothes basket we saw the small boy, his hands waving wildly. We explained to the conductor, we beamed on him with entreating smiles, but he wouldn't stop the train.

We had read in the Honolulu Advertiser this sentence: "In the minds of the newspaper men of Honolulu the Oahu railroad is a well constructed, well managed road, a credit to the promoters. This decision is not a conclusion drawn from hearsay, they have been there and know what they're talking about; 'mid the pleasures of a seventy mile ride and a good lunch their innermost heart has been touched, and the result is a unanimous verdict of approval." Clearly our hearts are not this day to be touched by lunch and our verdict will not be the result of such subtle bribery.

Slowly out from the city we glide, across and around lagoons and through rice fields, and as we get glimpses of the blue beyond we feel our hearts uplifted We think of Longfellow's lines: "O gift of God, O, perfect day, whereon shall no man work, but play; whereon it is enough for me not to be doing but to be!"

They told us that the railroad was doubly bonded; that it never was nor ever would be a paying investment What did we care? We were not wearied millionaires on anxious quest for solid investments. We were enjoying a holiday which we thought we had earned, and had our hearts tuned for pleasant impressions only. A bend of the road, sharply brought into view the blue Pacific and a picture like Paradise lies before us.

Merchant ships and fisher boats drive
Pearl furrows in the sapphire of the deep.
And by the beach the milky ripples roll
The purple-banded shells—and wind-fallen flowers
Of date and oleander dye the blown foam rosy.

We catch our breaths as a sense of the whole loveliness of the scene falls upon us, when another bend of the road whirls us past and it is gone. To the right of us are rice fields, and to look at them and see the primitive mode of their cultivation takes us back long long ages in the world's history. The Chinese are the farmers and I suppose they grow rice in precisely the same manner as their great-great-great-grandfathers did before them on the banks of the Amoor, Hoangho or Yang-tse Kiang. The rice seeds are planted in water, the seedling plants are removed and put into the permanent beds singly and by hand. After this fresh water is turned on every day and the grain grows entirely under water, the patches are systematically immersed. Good land gives two crops a year and these are harvested by sickles, the gentle John having been taught in school the comparison:—Positive, sickle; comparative, scythe; superlative, mowing machine. The faithful co-worker of the patient John is an animal that looks very much like the long-posed pig of the cheap Noah's Arks which we give little children at Christmas time (and which, by the way, by their unseaworthiness so sadly try the children's faith). We were anxious to learn more of these ungainly beasts, but all we elicited was that they were the true lineal descendants of the Scriptural ox and first cousin to the Nile hog. This ox would fain take the place of sleeping partner in the firm, and while John works himself up to a fury and indulges in some terrible tea box language, this "patient-eyed ox" lets himself settle into the desponding slough of the rice swamp, taxing his wooden plough with him, a living instance of the truism, "They also serve who only stand and wait."

Beyond the rice fields are rolling hills of stones, boulders, scoriae and lava-solids, very picturesque in the sunlight with their wondrous play of light and shade, reminding me forcibly of the Dakotah "Bad Lands," but of no possible use for the purposes of agriculture. Lantana even will not grow here, and lantana because of its aggressiveness, is fast becoming the curse of the islands. Like many other menaces it has a look of beauty that beguiles one, it is an attractive shrub with flowers like gorgeous colored helitropes.

We passed Pearl City, the track wound round, and we repassed it. The reason soon came out, Pearl City is a paper town, and this one of the many schemes for booming it. A far more business-like looking place is Ewa with large sugar mills and a little village with the mills as a nucleus. Leaving Ewa we pass by long fields of green cane and through thickets of algerobas. This tree is a valuable one commercially; it is a hard wood and makes excellent fuel which sells for $12 a cord in Honolulu. It has another use scarcely secondary to this; its seed pods—long, string-bean-looking effects—are the national dish for horses, taking the place almost entirely of grain, which does not grow here. Winding slowly round the front of Mount Mikila we slow up to find ourselves at Waianae with the sugar mill before us. A large amount of invested capital is here represented, much of it rises up skyward in the chimney-pots of the mill furnaces, but much of it is also sunk out of sight in the ground. The Waianae Plantation Company spent $75,000 in dry holes of artesian wells before it found the precious water needed in the factory, but the sugar mill must stand over for another day.

AGNES DEANS CAMERON.

NAZRULLA LEAVES ENGLAND.

He Will Return Home Via New York and San Francisco.

London, Sept. 9.—It is announced that Nazrulla Khan, second son of the Ameer of Afghanistan, who left London on Thursday, after a sojourn here of four months as a guest of the nation, will make a pilgrimage to Mecca; after which he will return to Cabul by way of St. Petersburg, New York and San Francisco.

England is relieved at seeing the last of the Khan, but for all that the Oriental prince was bidden farewell in good style. The Queen sent the state carriage to convey him to the station, troops lined the route, and he was escorted by a guard of honor. His departure gifts were very generous. He gave freely to various charitable institutions, and made presents to royal pesonages and officials with whom he had come in contact, which were generous in the extreme and are supposed to have cost him more than $50,000. The servants of Dorchester, where he was domiciled, received more than $5,000. Among the presents bestowed by this munificent young man were: To the Prince of Wales, a massive lampus laxuli and gold inkstand; to the Duke of Connaught, an enormous cigar box of gold, set with brilliants; to the Marquis of Salisbury, an inkstand inlaid with jewels; to Lord Rosebery, a gold cigar case inlaid with diamonds. He also provided handsomely for a girl who is well known to frequenters of the Empire theatre, with whom he had become infatuated and whom he had vainly tried to induce to go with him to Cabul. He sent as a present to the Ameer of Afghanistan a state carriage and gold mounted harness.

Soon after the departure of the special train on which he left Victoria station it was brought to a sudden stop. There was great excitement among the officials, who apprehended danger. None could be discovered, however. Finally it was ascertained that one of the prince's suite had been amusing himself with the alarm signal. Among the things which the shahzada has taken with him, and which will form an interesting exhibit to be laid before his father, is a scrap-book containing caricatures of himself, which were printed in the comic papers of England, a bicycle, a lemon squeezer, an egg beater, and a toy electric railway. He has also a little electric glow lamp fitted in a turban, the current for which can be turned off and on at pleasure.

Prospects of a Warm Winter.

Any person whose occupation keeps him or her out of doors in fall or winter weather, will be interested to learn that a layer of Fibre Chamois through the sleeves and body of a coat will more than double its warmth. This new interlining takes the place of hair-cloth or canvas, furnishing the necessary stiffness, at the same time it proves a wind-proof protection from the most penetrating blasts, while its porous qualities make it far more sanitary than anything else capable of imparting the same warmth. And in addition to all this it is so light that no extra bulk or burden is felt where it is used.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

GALIANO ISLAND.

Galiano Island, Sept. 9.—The new post-office on this island was opened on Monday the second instant. Galiano now rejoices in the many advantages enjoyed by her neighboring islands. The mail bag is closed for Victoria on Mondays at 4:30 p.m., for New Westminster on Fridays at 9:30 a.m. There is now full scope for a general store, for which there is ample promise to justify any person to undertake such an enterprise.

The fires that have been raging on this island for the past few weeks were greatly subdued by Saturday's rain. Almost the entire north end of the island is a blackened mass. It is supposed that the fires originated by some unfortunate fishermen who were driven across the Gulf from the Fraser river, by a storm. Indians also are partially responsible for the damage that has been done.

Grain harvest on Galiano has been completed under most favorable circumstances. The yield all through has been particularly heavy. The crops are pronounced to be the best that have been known for years.

A congregational meeting was held last Friday evening in the school house, and there was a very large attendance. Mr. F. W. Rudd was elected to the chair. The meeting was convened for the purpose of electing a committee to manage the affairs of the church for the ensuing year. Messrs. Stephen H. Hoskins, J. T. Seabrook and J. W. Rudd were elected. Mr. Seabrook has since resigned in favor of Mr. Robert Grubb, J. P.

Mr. W. M. Robson, of Mayne Island, is building a large addition to his hotel.

SLOCAN.

Nelson Miner

At the R. E. Lee ten men are employed puting out ten tons of ore a day.

The assay office and storehouse at the Washington mine have been burned by forest fires.

Phil. Aspinwall's interest in the Rambler and Tiger, have ben bonded for $7,500 by J. B. McArthur. First payment due 15th inst. A shipment of ore will shortly be made from the Rambler.

A ¾ interest in the L. H., on Eight Mile creek is reported bonded for $50,- but so far no papers are on record.

Tom Mulvey is endeavoring to get pack horses to pack down the ore from the Tiger claim, situated on the divide between Springer and Lemon creeks. This claim was only struck in July, but the owners have already got enough ore to ship besides building a trail.

In the 12 months prior to May 31st, 1895, 335 claims were recorded at New Denver and in the same period 410 assessments were recorded. Since June 1, 1895, in three months, 400 locations have ben entered on the books.

A huge ledge is reported from a locality described as 14 miles southeast from the head of Springer creek. Here on the top of the mountain two men, W B. Young and W. K. Hammond claim to have found a ledge 100 feet in width, which they could trace for a mile. They staked four claims on it and left the rest of the party to stake extensions. Of the samples brought in three assays gave the following returns: $36. 65 gold, 82-5 ounces of silver; $7 70 gold, and 149 2-5 ounces of silver; $8.65 gold and 54-5 ounces of silver.

NANAIMO.

Nanaimo, Sept. 10.—Mrs. Hirst, Miss McGuire and two children of the former were driving along Victoria road on Sunday evening when the horse bolted and dragged the buggy clear over a bluff. Miss McGuire in falling received a nasty cut on the forehead, but the others escaped injury. Dr. McKechnie was called in and dressed Miss McGuire's forehead.

Ald. Davison's by-law for the offering of a sum for the purchase of the Nanaimo waterworks passed its second reading last evening.

There does not seem to be much interest displayed in the approaching agricultural show to be held here on Friday and Saturday.

NELSON.

The Nelson Miner.

We understand that Mr. D. M. Bogle has sold the Rossland Miner to a syndicate of Trial Creek mine owners. Mr. Revis, late secretary of the Spokane Board of Trade, will be editor.

The Nelson and Fort Sheppard depot is to be moved from its present site high up on the mountain and placed on the end of the Five Mile Point line in Hogus Town. The situation is almost as inconvenient as the other. The steam shovel came in on Monday last and ballasting has commenced.

The Hall Mines recently shipped 67 tons of ore out of its warehouse to the United States. Half of the shipment was sent to Newark, N. J., and half to Butte. The bags of ore were weighed in tens and alternately dispatched to the two smelters. The freight rate to Butte is $8—to Newark $18, yet the returns from Butte were $100 per ton less than those from Newark.

M. McGrath and J. Phair were shooting the other day on the stony ground just beyond the Kootenay bridge, having with them a large black dog. Suddenly the dog, which was hunting in some bushes, gave a howl of pain and ran out. The poor beast stood rigid for a few minutes as if paralyzed and then fell dead. It was supposed that it was bitten by a rattlesnake. These reptiles, though exceedingly scarce in Kootenay, have been known before. Some were killed on this very spot during the construction of the railway.

NEW DENVER

The Ledge.

The rain of the past few days has had the effect of cooling the atmosphere much to the satisfaction of all. Yesterday morning many of the mountain peaks were coated in a fresh fall of the beautiful.

Mr. A. C. Bucke, engineer of the Slocan Star, who is in the Slocan Hospital suffering from typhoid, is doing well, as also is Robert Barr, miner, another typhoid case from the concentrator.

Robert Kirkwood and Jack McKinnon, proprietors of the Slocan Queen and Enterprise, started tunnelling on Monday, preparatory to shipping ore.

Work has been going on for two weeks in the Tamarack. Things are looking good in this mine. Con. Fielding and Sam Whittaker of Slocan City are the proprietors.

A great many owners of claims on Springer and Ten Mile and that neighborhood are going to develop their properties, in order to ship ore this coming winter.

The concentrator is at present turning out a car load of Alamo concentrates daily, averaging about 125 ounces. Mathematicians can figure out a nice profit if they have a few minutes to spare.

Dan McGuaig and Dan McPherson have returned from doing some work on the Lone Star. They have succeeded in finding the ledge in a couple of places, and have a very nice showing.

About 45 feet of shafting has been sunk on the Currie claim on the Galena Farm. There is about 30 tons of shipping ore on the dump, and over 100 tons of concentrating ore now ready for shipment.

Ed. Shannon and Angus McGillivray have returned to town for a few days from working on the Nepawa. That property is panning out remarkably well and the boys are well pleased with it.

The Cordelia, a North Fork property owned by Mitchell Burns and Iva W. Hack, is rapidly coming to the front. The boys intend shortly to make a shipment of 20 tons. Samples taken from 70 sacks give assay returns of 211 ozs. silver and 27 per cent. lead.

Geo. Petty, with the help of one man, is doing good work on the Monitor, his new strike about 500 feet up the mountain west of Three Forks. The crosscut tunnel to tap the lead 35 feet from the surface will be completed in another week, and if the showing there is anything like what it is on the surface the Monitor will be heard of as a shipper very shortly.

The New Denver people who have gone into gardening this year have not only enjoyed seeing the wonderful growth, but are now enjoying a rich harvest, and it is quite evident that all kinds of vegetables can be grown with the greatest profit and little labor in our district. This being a fact it may be expected that some of our enterprising citizens will enter into it next year as a means of livelihood, which certainly would prove profitable, when the present high freight and express rates that are paid are considered, and consequently high prices for all things in this line. Fruit could be grown, and should be. When we consider the fine opportunity which New Denver is favored with in regard to town site and any quantity of the very best ground for vegetables and fruit, the wonder is that advantage has not been already taken to a far larger extent—than it has.

CHOLERA ON THE INCREASE.

News Notes of Interest from Across the Atlantic.

London, Sept. 9.—A portion of a pier at Morecambe, a watering place on Morecambe bay, Lancaster county, collapsed to-day, throwing a large crowd of persons into the water. Two were killed and a number were injured.

The new battle ship Majestic started on her trial trip this morning, but ran aground on the sands at Spithead. She was floated at high water, but a further trial has been postponed until her hull can be examined to ascertain whether she has received any injuries.

An Odessa despatch to the Daily News says that there has been an increase of cholera at Volkhma, and that 250 deaths are occurring daily in the government of Podoria. Fraseroum is also seriously affected.

A Berlin dispatch to the Standard says that in memory of Prince Bismarck's utterances, "I earned my diplomatic spurs at Erfurt," a number of Erfurt admirers have sent to the Prince a floral piece in the shape of a pair of gigantic spurs.

A Vienna dispatch to the Times says that twenty seven cases of cholera have appeared at Tarnapol, Galacia, of which fifteen have resulted fatally to date.

IN THE PRAIRIE CITY.

Mr. Patterson Cooly Received—The Soo Canal a Success.

Winnipeg, Sept. 9.—Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, controller of customs, passed through Winnipeg to-day. It is understood he will meet the Premier and party at Regina, where a conference will be held on the school question, with a view of making some offer of compromise to the Manitoba government.

Hon. J. C. Patterson, Manitoba's new Lieutenant-Governor, arrived at Winnipeg this afternoon. There was no formal reception or demonstration. His Honor was met at the station by the members of the local government, prominent politicians and citizens, and escorted to the Manitoba hotel, where he remains during his brief stay here, previous to going east for his family. Sir John Schultz has been sworn in to act as administrator for the province in the absence of the new governor.

The sale of seneca root has been very profitable during the past year. Over 250,000 pounds have been exported, realising to the gatherers about $50,000.

An order-in-council has been passed appointing L. G. McLeod, of Alexander, registration clerk in the electoral division of Lansdowne, to prepare lists for a bye-election. The candidates spoken of are Robert Hall, Griswold, Liberal, and W. J. Helliwell, Oaklake, Conservative.

Sault Ste. Marie, Sept. 9.—The first boat to lock through the new Canadian canal was the Uganda, bound down. The locks worked perfectly and a steady line of boats has been passing through all day. Besides the blowing of the whistles of the harbor tugs and the boats in the vicinity, no public ceremonies were observed. The reported closing of the locks on Sunday is denied by Superintendent Boyd. Captains using the lock to-day were highly pleased with the service. By relieving the pressure of vessels on the American lock, the Canadian canal will be of great value to vessel men for the balance of the season.

TUPPER ON COPYRIGHT.

Canada Has a Right to Legislate as a Self-Governing Colony.

Toronto, Sept. 9.—Speaking on the Copyright Act, at the directors' luncheon at the exhibition grounds here yesterday, Sir Charles H. Tupper, minister of justice, said that while there had been differences of opinion as to the wisdom of this legislation, Canadians were alone in the demand that their right to legislate as a self governing colony must be conceded by the home government, or the grandest conceptions of British statesmen, both at home and in the colonies, might be long and unfortunately delayed.

VALKYRIE VICTORIOUS.

el Bach with her attendant tug was following astern of the Defender, and the Valkyrie was half way down the Swash channel. The sea did not bother the Defender in the slightest. She seemed to glide over the long glassy swells in a graceful and easy manner. The Valkyrie had then her jib out and was in tow off the point of the Hook. The Defender was half way out to Scotland lightship at this time and the weather continued hazy, although the sun had come out very warm and seemed to be burning up the mist. The Valkyrie at 9.15 a.m., was well out past the Hook, with mainsail, club topsail and two head sails set. She was still in tow of her tug and like the Defender glided along easily. The wind was still light and from the southwest and it would seem that the two yachts in order to sail to windward on the first leg would have to start further out than Sandy Hook or else turn very close to shore, consequently the starting line might be changed.

Highlands off Navesink, Sept. 10.—Previous to the start both went about a quarter of a mile, and the British boat blanketed the Defender, but to the surprise of everyone, the Defender worked out from under her lee. Again the British boat blanketed her, Crawfield gave the English boat a fisherman's luff, outwinding her American rival, and Capt. Haff was obliged to leeward and astern of the British boat. The yachts crossed the line in the following official time: Valkyrie, 11:00:13; Defender 11:01: 15.

The Valkyrie never lost her advantage from the start to this point, but rather showed a tendency to increase her gain till 11:53 when the breeze seemed to take a spurt, which communicated itself to the Defender, for she started forward and did something toward closing up the gap between herself and her competitor.

The race to-day is being sailed on its merits, and the boats are not hampered by the excursion fleet as they were on Saturday. A few minutes to 12 o'clock the wind veered around to the south and both boats accordingly head to the southeast, with the Valkyrie seemingly only a quarter of a mile ahead. As the mark boat was stationed about seven miles off Long Branch, it was not possible to see it from the cable ship. At 12 o'clock the Defender tacked and was immediately imitated by her companion. Both boats were now heading for the first mark boat, and could only be faintly seen through the bank of mist. It was anybody's race so far, but the breeze began to freshen up after a short lull. The Valkyrie was carrying the same sailing clothes as when she started, and it could be seen that she was fully maintaining her lead; it was very evident that she was developing somewhat unexpected ability, and this notwithstanding the fact that the Defender, admirably handled, and sailing splendidly, was going through the water at a great rate. About 12:30 the Defender, sailing a wonderfully fast race, had lessened the lead of the Valkyrie. The boats rounded the first stake boat of the triangle at: Valkyrie, 12:37: Defender, 1 o'clock, shortly after which they disappeared in the mist. The wind at the time of turning the first stake boat was increasing in strength, and blew at the rate of 12 to 15 miles an hour, kicking up little whitecaps, so that the yachts seemed likely to have a good breeze for the second leg.

After turning both boats ran down fore the wind for the second mark, the Britisher still showing the way. The fog having lifted, watchers on the cable ships were enabled to see the two yachts running down at a lively rate with balloon jibs set. It was not possible to distinguish them accurately at that distance, but by the set of the sails, the forward boat was marked out as the Valkyrie. This was an uncertain matter, however, for some time, and it was not till 2:30 o'clock that the question was finally settled by the Valkyrie looming up, still leading, but with the Defender close on her heels, the American boat evidently having closed up the gap between herself and her opponent while running through the fog. Both boats were carrying a perfect cloud of canvas, the leading boat standing up very stiffly, while the rear one was heeling heavily. It was now evident that the Valkyrie, barring accidents, would finish first, which she did, entering the outer line of excursion boats waiting to welcome the victor, and crossing the line ahead.

Steamer Mackay-Bennett, Sept. 10.—Coming in for the last three miles the American yacht picked up considerable lost ground, and notwithstanding her protest flag, gallantly finished the race. As they came down to the line, the two boats were dressed alike, each carrying mainsail, No. 1 club top-sail, balloon stay-sail, jib and No. 3 jib top-sail. The Valkyrie carried a heavy bone in her teeth, kicking up a great wave before her. The Defender was better, and made little fuss. When the Valkyrie got just off the line, she slowed a bit and lost some headway. Both boats went up toward the city when the race was over amid the tooting of whistles.

Following are the official times: Start—Valkyrie 11:00:13; Defender 11:01:15; first mark—Valkyrie 12:57:45; Defender 1:01:35; 2nd mark—Valkyrie 1:58:10; Defender, 2:01:45; finish—Valkyrie 2:35: 22; Defender, 2:37:40. Corrected time, Valkyrie 3:55:09, Defender 3:55:56. Valkyrie wins in 47 seconds. The protest will be heard this evening.

THE WHEEL.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP MEETING.

Those who had the good fortune to witness the races in connection with the opening of the Oak Bay cinder track on the 29th of June last are looking forward to a treat long to be remembered on Saturday of this week, when all the crack riders of British Columbia and the Northwest will be in Victoria for the provincial championship meeting. It is the aim of the Victoria Wheelmen's Club, under whose direction the meet will be, to keep right up with the procession, and thus they have decided to introduce pacing in all the more important events, so that there may be fast contests from the start and therefore especially exciting. For those uninterested in the mysteries of cycle racing it may be explained that better time can always be made by a rider if he does not have to set his own pace—if he has someone to go just ahead of him and set the pace, leaving him to do the hard racing at the finish. In consequence pacing has come into general use on all the great eastern and California tracks, and all records have been made with the assistance of the indispensable but little credited pacemaker. For Saturday's races a fast team of tandem riders are expected to come from Portland, under special arrangement with the V. W. C. for them to do the pacing in the class B events and possibly in the one and five mile championships. All the championships promise to be well contested this year, and though the Deemings have been training for months to defend their honors hard work will be set them by McGregor of Nanaimo, Barker of Vancouver, and perhaps a certain young Victorian who shall be nameless for a day or so. The championship programme contains 12 races, all of which are filling well, and in addition Fred T. Merrill of Portland, will probably give an exhibition of trick and fancy riding—in which he is without a rival in this part of the country. To-night the club meets to make final arrangements, select officers of the day, etc. Preparations will also be initiated for a social concert and dancing party in honor of the visitors after the day's sport is over. In this feature assistance will be had from the newly projected ladies' wheeling club that was organized yesterday, as an auxiliary of the V. W. C. The ladies' club promises to have an enrolment of about 50 active members by Monday next, when the next meeting will be held and officers elected. In the interval Miss Duffy is acting as president and Miss Tite as secretary pro tem.

LAWN TENNIS.

AT HAMILTON.

Hamilton, Sept. 9.—Rain to-day at the tennis tournament made the courts heavy, but the best play ever witnessed in this city was seen. Miss Osborne had a hard struggle to defeat Mrs. Whitehead for the ladies' championship, in the second set, after winning the first rather easily. In the open singles, semi-final, Wrenn played splendidly, easily defeating Rapelzae, but in the afternoon he succumbed to the unconquered Neel, who played a steady game throughout. Neel, for the first time in the tournament, showed his strength, his accurate placing and coolness, winning the admiration of the onlookers. He meets Fischer for the championship to-morrow. Results:—Open singles, semi finals, Wrenn beat Rapelzae, 6-0, 6-0. Final round, Neel beat Wrenn, 6-0, 2-6, 6-0, 6-4. Men's doubles, semi-final, Neel and Wrenn beat Fischer and Rapelzae, 6-3, 6-1. F. S. Glassco and Hawes beat M. S. Glassco and Wylie, 7-5, 5-7, 6-1. Ladies' singles, championship, Miss Osborne beat Mrs. Whitehead, 6-2, 12-10. Mixed doubles, Neel and Mrs. Smith beat F. S. Glassco and Mrs. Whitehead, 6-1, 6-1.

JUNIOR TOURNAMENT.

The result of yesterday's play in the junior tournament follows: R. Dunsmuir (scratch) beat R. Hayward (scratch), 2-6, 6-2, 7-5; H. A. Goward (scratch) beat T. E. Pooley (rec. 15), 6-3, 6-5; E. Wigram (rec. 15) beat J. Shuter (rec. 1-2 15), 6-0, 0-6, 3-6; W. R. Napier (rec. 1-2 15) beat W. R. Wilson (scratch), 6-3, 3-6, 6-2; G. D. Ward (rec. 1-2 15) beat G. H. Chante (rec. 15), 6-3, 6-5; and G. T. Johnston (owes 15) beat R. Harvey (owes 15), 6 love, 4-6, 6-1.

BASEBALL.

KAMLOOPS DEFEATED.

The Newly organized Kamloops baseball team played three games on Friday and Saturday of last week with the Canmore team. The latter won every game. Franklin pitched two games for ball, but was poorly supported. In one of the matches he struck out eleven men, and in the three games made six two-baggers and four singles.

FOSTER ON THE RIOTS.

The Counsel for the Chinese Government Gives His Opinion.

Watertown, N.Y., Sept. 10.—Hon. J. W. Foster, ex-secretry of state, and the recent counsel for the Chinese government, in an address on foreign missions here to-night spoke as follows on the recent riots in China:

"The opinion formed by me after a careful inquiry and observation is that the masses of the population in China, particularly the common people, are not especially hostile to the missionaries and their work. Occasionally riots have occurred, but they are almost invariably traced to the literal or prospective office-holders and the ruling classes. These are often bigoted and conceited to the highest degree, and regard the teachings of the missionaries as tending to overthrow the existing order of government and society, which they look upon as a perfect system and sanctified by great antiquity.

"The war with Japan, which resulted in humiliating peace and the loss of territory, has greatly weakened the imperial authority, and the disbandment of several hundred thousand troops, mostly without pay due them, has added to the prevailing discontent and disorder. Under such circumstances it is not strange that riots occur. But we in America should be charry of our condemnation when we recall the many outrages which have been inflicted on Chinese subjects in the United States. Remember that the Rock Springs, Wyo., trouble a few years ago was equally cruel and fatal in its results, and reflected severely on the authorities.

I am, however, in full sympathy with the prevailing demand in the United States, that China should be held to a strict accounting for these outrages, but in doing this care should be exercised by our government that it does not lend itself to advance the sinister projects of European governments which are on the alert to turn the international trouble of China to their own benefit. The United States is strong enough to act independently of European combinations, and China has never failed to comply with its just demands.

"There seems to be, on the part of the public press of our country, a misconception of the ground upon which our government bases its intervention on account of these riots. It is not because we are a Christian country, and are seeking to support a Christian propagandaism in China; it is simply because the people in whose behalf our government intervenes are American citizens pursuing an avocation permitted by Chinese laws."
